Tartan Day

Bagpipes called all Clans to 11th St. Precinct for the annaul celebration of the Declaration of Arbroath. Derek Grant gave a presentation with the number of Americans with Scottish roots. And the many innovations that can be credited to Scottish ingenuity. McCartney and Aiden Low handed out official tartan day buttons and then delivered cake to all in attendance.

Gale Hoff and the folks from the travel agency had a display for the Big 2018 Trip.

Beltane Potluck Picnic

May 23 6 p.m.

The annual, traditional Celtic celebration of the "awakening of the new year" will be held again at Duck Creek Park, Shelter 1, Davenport. Everyone attending is asked to bring a dish to share and your own table service and beverages. As is the case every year, Ty Thomson will providing cake as a remembrance of her and Chick's anniversary. Last year there was a ceremony during which members of any clans present were asked to light a small piece of wood and add it to the fire - representing our unity. This was so well received that Bill Hawthorne will lead us in a similar ceremony this year.

Did You Know? Celtic Paris...

Since most people think of Scotland and Ireland when talking about the Celts, they don't realize that the city of Paris was originally founded by Celtic Tribes. The Parisii people colonized the banks of the Seine River in at about 250 B.C. and are first mentioned in the Commentarii de Bello Gallico (Commentaries on the Gallic War) written by Julius Caesar, circa 58-49 BC.
